My Dear Mary

I am much obliged for your letter - now of some date a few days ago - and now in reply I forward to you the address you letter reference to - I have thought of learning it when I have been in town, but each time I have forgotten it - I purpose to send you some time the Te Deum and gle of which I spoke to you - and perhaps something else - I must cut short in order to meet the Express man - Other wise I was about to write a letter - My Caroline attending I am grateful for remembrance, and in the fulness of this heart immediately set off not writing - Thinking you my good thing I am your friend very truly
